U. S. GIRL DANCER FLOWN TO HITLER

Command Performance—Dancing in Munich two weeks ago, Marion Daniels, beautiful Chicago acrobatic dancer, so impressed Adolf Hitler that he chartered a special plane for her to fly from Cannes, France, to Berlin to repeat performance.

Search for Ship 'Torpedoed' Near Azores Is Abandoned

CHATHAM, Feb. 23 (AP)—Organized search was abandoned today for the unnamed vessel which yesterday crackled out a sudden SOS, reporting she had been torpedoed near the Azores, and the beclouded affair appeared likely to be recorded as another mystery of the sea.

The radio marine station here reported the Greek steamer Mount Pelion had given up its search of the area named in the distress message—signed only by the unidentified letters "Pecc"—some hours after the British liner Empress of Australia had abandoned the fruitless hunt.

Neither vessel found any wreckage or other trace of a torpedoed ship.

Only alliance greeted those who listened constantly on the international distress and calling wave for any further elucidation of the SOS.

BELIEVED STRAY MINE

In Washington Captain G. S. Bryan, the navy's chief hydrographer, expressed an opinion a stray floating mine may have sunk the unidentified ship.

He said the Naval Hydrographic Office was advised by radio on January 27 that a mine with six "horse" or contact points, had been sighted by the oil tanker California Standard about 600 miles southwest of the Azores.

The position given by the vessel which flashed the electrifying SOS was about 360 miles south of the islands.

Ocean currents and winds might easily have carried the mine the intervening 240 miles distance, naval officials said.

These officials termed a "definite possibility" that the mine was a stray sea weapon of the Spanish civil war.

The British oil tanker Pecten, listed for a time as a possible victim, was subsequently discovered to be afloat and untroubled and proceeding toward her destination, Southampton, Eng.

DOUBT CALL A HOAX

Concerning possibility that the SOS might have been a hoax, officials said the message itself was undoubtedly genuine.

They explained the distress call was rebroadcast by other vessels after it was first picked up, as is the custom when a stricken ship is in grave danger.

The message first was received from the American freighter Tulsa, but later a London station reported it had heard what apparently was the original broadcast. It was picked up also in the Azores.

KILL GUAM 5 MILLION AIR BASE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (INS)—President Roosevelt's rearmament program received its first set-back in Congress today when the House struck from the $33,800,000 naval air base bill a $5,000,000 program to expand aviation facilities at Guam.

The vote was 193 to 164. The action was taken on a teller vote and a roll-call vote was immediately ordered.

Stocks Stage Hesitant Rally

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP)—The stock market took a hesitant step forward today but soon lapsed into a drift again.

'GIRL LURE' CASE GOES TO JURORS

The fate of two pretty girl waitresses, charged with being "lures" in the robbery of two Chicago draftsmen, was in the hands of a Suffolk County jury this afternoon.

The girls are Fay Mikulka, 19, of Porter street, Chelsea, and Mary Oliver, 19, of Peabody.

On trial with them on robbery charges are Ralph Conit, 24, of Marion street, East Boston, and Jerry Landoll, 21, of Bullfinch street, West End.

The morning was taken up by arguments of defense and prosecution and shortly after noon Judge Raoul Beaudreau gave the case to the jury.

The prosecution charged the two girls lured Paul Knudsen and Frederick Plambeck from a Washington street cafe to a street near the Custom House, where five men set upon Plambeck and Knudsen and robbed them of $8, a watch, and a pair of eyeglasses. The defense said the girls were only trying to get rid of the two men when they walked to the Custom House.

Pledges Bases for War Against Britain, France

By ROBERT G. NIXON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (INS)—Generalissimo Franco has promised Premier Mussolini and Chancellor Hitler "full cooperation" in use of Spanish air and naval bases in event of war against France and Britain, according to secret reports reaching Washington.

The agreement, amounting to a virtual military alliance between the three states, is the price exacted by Italy and Germany for aid in crushing government Spain, certain prominent American officials have been told.

So secret is the "understanding" that its publication is deemed almost certain to bring instant denials from Rome, Berlin and Burgos. As yet the alliance is informal but none the less binding. No signatures have been affixed to a formal document, and none are expected.

FORMAL PACT LATER

Later, after complete subjugation of the loyalist regime, Franco, however, is expected formally to adhere to the Rome-Berlin-Tientsin anti-Communist pact.

The reported agreement aroused apprehension on the fate of the efforts being made by Great Britain to "buy off" Franco with a huge reconstruction loan.

Under the alliance, as reported to Washington, Mussolini and Hitler have been given bases which would permit them to smash or make ineffectual the British fortifications at Gibraltar, attacking the stronghold from the land side, where military experts consider it most vulnerable, and from huge counter-fortifications across the narrow straits at Ceuta, and at Agadir on the Spanish mainland.

HITS FRANCE'S LIFELINE

With air and naval bases in the Balearic Islands, France's "life line" to Morocco would be menaced. Devastating air attacks could be launched against France and England from air bases below the Spanish border.

Through submarine and air bases on the west coast of Spain, in the Canary Islands and on the north west coast of Africa, Italian and German submarine and planes would be able to harass French and British commercial shipping and warships in the Atlantic.

Chamberlain Paris-Rome Mediator

ROME, Feb. 23 (AP)—Hints of mediation by British Prime Minister Chamberlain of the differences arising from Italian aspirations toward French territory appeared today in two Italian newspapers.

Il Popolo di Roma, in a dispatch from London, said Chamberlain was preparing a plan to settle Italy's at yet unofficial claims for French colonial concessions.

Il Resto del Carlino of Bologna, leading provincial organ, at the same time listed Fascist obstacles to mediation by Chamberlain and said Italy would prefer Chancellor Hitler of Germany to Chamberlain on the Briton's part.

Il Popolo's dispatch said overtures were made by Lord Perth, British ambassador to Rome, in conversations here with Foreign Minister Ciano.

The Bologna newspaper asked in its account if Chamberlain understood that:

Italy does not intend to accept a small handout.

Italy intends that all her "national aspirations" be satisfied fully.

Mediation means compromise, and Italy rejects compromises.

It also added a question as to whether Chamberlain "really understood that if Italy did not receive the territory which belongs to her she would take it without asking anybody's permission."

GRANTS DIVORCEE MORE TIME WITH HER DAUGHTER, 5

A mother's plea for more time with her child, now in custody of her divorced husband, was granted today in Middlesex Probate Court.

Judge John C. Leggat found in favor of Mrs. Esther E. Jenkins of Somerville, who had asked for more time to see five-year-old Nancy Jenkins. The petition was opposed by the child's father, Charles E. Jenkins of Arlington, now remarried.

When the case, featured by discussion of the grinning habits of the mother, was completed today, Judge Leggat said to the ex-husband:

"I don't know anything you can say that will prevent this woman from seeing her child at all reasonable times."

WILL AGREE ON TIME

Judge Leggat ordered the opposing attorneys to confer and agree upon times when the child would be with her mother. He indicated that the mother was entitled to custody during vacations.

At present Mrs. Jenkins may see her daughter only for three hours each Saturday afternoon.

She denied that she was drunk last May when she was arrested at Salisbury Beach, denied that she was only partly dressed, and denied that she was lying on the ground.

Mrs. Jenkins said the last time she had a drink was last July.

During the earlier testimony Judge Leggat demanded of Dr. Ezekiel Pratt of Massachusetts avenue, Arlington, testifying for the father:

"Do you think it is a bad thing for a child to see its mother occasionally?"

DOCTOR ON STAND

The doctor started to answer:

"On the record of the mother—"

when Judge Leggat interrupted him.

Asked to look at Mrs. Jenkins in the courtroom and say if she looked like a woman who could harm her child by seeing her for a few hours, Dr. Pratt answered, "No."

He testified to having been called several years ago to treat little Nancy, and finding her with a twitching of the face, shoulders and one eye.

Last November, he said, he again saw Nancy, after she had been cared for by the second Mrs. Jenkins, and the twitchings were gone. The child was then robust, he said.

The present Mrs. Jenkins testified that she built Nancy up from a frail, delicate child, and that Nancy is up and after she comes back from visits with her mother.

5 Stolen Birds Find Way Home

Francis Sampson, 28, of Clark street, Newtonville, was a pleased man today when five of his flock of 25 pigeons, all stolen from his loft last week, returned.

Sampson, whose hobby is raising homing and racing pigeons, reported to police that a thief broke into his loft Saturday and rustled off with his birds.

The pigeon fancier has high hopes that the remainder of the flock, if they have not already decorated a dinner table, will return in due time.

A Dream? No, Sir!

HO-HUM, it was a busy day, what with all the shopping and getting ready for dinner at the Ritz. So says Lorraine Cooke of Jamaica Plain as she tucks herself into bed in hotel suite and dreams of more Cinderella adventures today.

Hitler Sends Plane For U.S. Girl Dancer

CANNES, France, Feb. 23—Marion Daniels, pretty blonde California tap dancer, returned to France from Germany in Adolf Hitler's plane, charmed with the Fuehrer, whom she in turn had charmed with her fancy stepping at Munich.

The 19-year-old American girl, a former Alameda high school student, did a specialty dance in a mardi gras performance of Lehar's "Merry Widow" on the special invitation of Hitler, who sent his personal plane to transport her to and from Cannes.

"After my dance the Fuehrer handed me a magnificent bouquet of pink carnations and lilies and congratulated me personally," Miss Daniels said, flushed at the recollection.

CHARMING MAN

"He said I was the most marvelous dancer he had ever seen and that I was great. The Fuehrer is one of the most charming and nicest men."

"I was amazed to find him in evening dress. In fact there was not a single uniform in the entire audience. The house was packed and I was given enthusiastic applause."

"The moment I got the telegram from Hitler asking me to come to Munich it seemed as if a magic carpet had whirled me off. When I made my entrance I looked at the box where the Fuehrer was sitting and made what I hope was a nice little bow."

LAUDS HER FLEXES

Marion related that Hitler said she has "marvelous flexes" when he met her later on, in an art club.

"He spoke to me in German and I don't know what the word for it is," said the blonde acrobatic dancer, "but a translator said he said I had marvelous movements of body and legs, and I guess that meant flexes."

She denied she had been paid for her Munich trip in "frozen marks."

"Not on your life," she answered. "I danced for real money. And that trip was expensive since I never go anywhere without mother."

Mother is Mrs. Fred Daniels. The dancer's father is a hotel keeper at Stockton, Calif.

Miss Daniels said she danced for the Fuehrer on a previous occasion in the Merry Widow at a Munich music hall.

"After the show," she said,

Absent From Glory

NORMA SHEARER

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 23—

When gold statuettes are presented outstanding 1938 film stars tonight, among those eligible, but absent, will be Margaret Sullivan, former Cambridge girl and now mother of a baby girl, and Norma Shearer, now nursing a throat infection. Among those who will be present and may win coveted honors are Newton's Bette Davis, Fay Bainter, Charles Boyer, Spencer Tracy, Leslie Howard and James Cagney.

MARGARET SULLIVAN

CAGNEY'S $234,000 'TOPS'

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—James Cagney was Warner Brothers' highest paid movie star in 1938, with earnings of $234,000. His salary was disclosed in the company's annual report to the securities commission, made public today. Kay Francis, actress, was second on the list of Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc., with $224,000.

Shirley's Boston Friend, 7, Real Life Princess for Day

"... And all of a sudden she was in a white, silken dress in a great hall, and there was music, and food of which she had never dreamed. Servants were all about her with silver and candles... And there were a dozen Prince Charmings bowing before her, each eager to serve her to the limit of his ability... All of a sudden she knew that truly she was a princess..."

So it happened to Cinderella, and so it happened yesterday to little Lorraine Cooke, 7-year-old friend of Shirley Temple, and chosen by her to be a princess for 24 golden, glamorous hours—a reward for the simple tendering of friendship from one little girl to another.

And today—because Lorraine wrote a letter to the Boston Evening American, enclosing a letter to Shirley, inviting her to visit her humble home at 39 Mozart

Death Threat Bared In School Bomb Plot

Closely following the discovery of a bomb in the famous Wolff's Tutoring School, Massachusetts avenue, Cambridge, Harold Wolff, proprietor, reported he had received a death threat in the mail today.

Save Weymouth Auto Gas Victim

Weymouth firemen today saved the life of George Nash of Shaw street, North Weymouth, after he was found unconscious in his garage by his wife.

The firemen worked with an inhalator for more than 90 minutes before Nash regained consciousness.

According to his wife, Nash took his dog for a walk. When he failed to return Mrs. Nash became alarmed.

Going to the garage she discovered the motor of the car running and her husband slumped in the front seat.

Police said they discovered a piece of garden hose attached to the exhaust pipe and extended into the front seat of the machine.

Wolff notified Cambridge police of the threat and Inspector Edward Glennon was assigned to investigate.

According to Captain Charles J. Van Amburgh, who examined the bomb found on a stairway of the school, the device might have injured any person standing nearby if it had exploded, but would not have done much damage to the building.

Captain Van Amburgh said the bomb consisted of a small glass bottle containing assorted birdshot and smokeless powder extracted from shotgun shells.

"This amount of explosive," he said, "would have caused injury to anyone in the immediate vicinity, but very small structural damage. The bomb is of amateurish construction."

The Wolff school is famous among Harvard men the world over. Its recent clients have included John Roosevelt and Franklin D. Jr.

The bomb was found by Patrolman James J. Shea of Cambridge police while trying doors along his route.

GLADYS SWARTHOUT
Sings 'Em on Way

Songs of Love Replace Orator At Graduation

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Mid-term graduates of George Washington University went out into the world today with the sweet notes of Gladys Swarthout ringing in their ears instead of the customary words of wisdom from a commencement orator.

President Cloyd Heck Marvin explained the university presented a singer rather than a speaker at the exercises because of the important role music plays in national life.

During that point in the program where ordinarily a barrel-chested orator struts to the front of the stage Miss Swarthout, arrayed in gay colors, swept out of the wings.

"Ah," gasped the graduates. "Instead of the customary: 'Young men and women who are about to enter into that great stage of life...'"

Here's what happened: Miss Swarthout sang "Spendthrift," then "My Pagan Love" and "Clouds."

Few orators ever got the applause she did.

DUTCH ORDER 2 WARSHIPS

THE HAGUE, Feb. 23 (AP)—The Netherlands today ordered construction of two new 8,500-ton cruisers, larger than any of the nation's present naval vessels, to be completed late in 1941.

Kane Orders Saddles For His 'Riding Cops'

Woburn's fast-talking mayor, William E. Kane, today announced he was calling on Jack Scannell, who slaughters cows, to co-operate with him in his latest campaign to make members of the Woburn police force look more streamlined by eliminating their surplus fat.

"It's not that Jack, one of my best friends, is going to mail any cops between the eyes with a mallet to cut down the pay roll," the mayor explained.

"He's just going to provide them with saddles so they can climb aboard these poor old farm nags and get in a little fashionable posting."

NICE, FREE EXERCISE

Kane laughed, took a drink of water, and continued:

"Since I have had the cops working ten hours a day, they have all been out on the streets, and people who hadn't seen a cop in years are seeing them now."

"They are surprised. They are beginning to realize how many we have."

"And what with physical exams coming up, it is best to have our police force in shape to meet them. After all, Dolly Mead, a nice little girl in the auditor's office, pays $1 an hour to ride a pony."

"These boys are getting it for nothing. It will give them some recreation."

"Further, to show them I have only their interest at heart, I will save them from having to walk in covering their traffic posts."

"The horses are too fat, too, anyway."

BUY THEIR OWN BOOTS

With Scannell agreeing to supply the saddles, and the city giving them the horses, the officers should be extremely grateful, Kane argued. They should be only too willing to buy boots for themselves, he added.

"The police and the horses can get used to riding together," he added. "Pretty soon maybe I'll be 'Hi ho, Silver!' out here in Woburn."

The mayor's latest plan is another step in his retaliation against police, firemen and school teachers who refused to accept pay cuts and who sued the city for their money in addition.

Chief of Police Charles R. McCauley, who is wearing his uniform days in compliance with the mayor's order of a few days ago, sighed when the plan was mentioned to him.

"Well, we haven't got any orders about it anyway—yet," he said.

Suspend 2 Quincy Cops After Crash

Two Quincy police officers were suspended today following a conference between Chief John J. Avery and Mayor Thomas S. Burdick.

The officers, John T. Wuerth and John E. Reid, according to Chief Avery, were involved in an automobile accident last week in which a 25-year-old Dorchester girl was injured.

Off duty at the time, Wuerth and Reid, the chief said, were driving the girl to a Saugus address. After the accident, in which the officers escaped injury, they took the girl to the Lynn Hospital, where she is still a patient.

2 Firemen Injured In W. Newbury Blaze

WEST NEWBURY, Feb. 23 (AP)—Two firemen were injured today while fighting a fire in the home of Douglas G. MacConnell on Crane Neck Hill.

The injured men were Albert Elwell and Marshall Buchhalter. The fire loss was estimated at $3,500.

WIFE, BABY VISIT "DEATH HOUSE" MIKE ALEX

Saw 35 Go to Chair, Walks Last Mile Tonight

OSSINING, N. Y., Feb. 23 (AP)—"Death House Mike" looks down the lonesome road to the electric chair for the third time today, with only one slim hope remaining to escape his latest date with death.

The state lunacy commission ruled yesterday that he—Michael Alex, 27, convicted of a $15 robbery-killing after six murder trials—is sane. Mike received the news forlornly. "Well," he told his brother, John, 25, who had been brought more than 400 miles from Attica prison to see him for the last time, "if the doctors aren't going to bug me things don't look so good."

To "bug" a prisoner means to declare him insane. With his sanity affirmed, Alex was to leave the house of the living dead for the last time at 11 p. m. today.

In 22 months he has seen 35 other men make the final exit. Twice convicted of the murder of Frank Pondbury, Queens grocer, he was twice saved from execution by new trials. Three mistrials followed, and finally he was convicted of murdering Jack Ehrlich, insurance collector.

His brother, serving 30 to 50 years for assault and robbery, arrived to see him with the remark, "This is going to be an awful blow to the family."

BASEMENT STUDIO—ANNEX

At Leonard Morse Hospital in Natick, where she was reported in critical condition with pneumonia, she was identified as Margaret Strain, 23, of Wilmington, N. C.

Natick officers in a patrol car discovered the girl near the Wellesley-Natick line. She lurched and nearly swooned as they stopped to question her.

Obviously sick and in semi-delirious condition, the girl mumbled her name and said she was trying to reach home and mother in North Carolina. She was dressed in light clothing and had only 35 cents in her purse, police said.

"Please, help me reach my mother," she cried.

"I'm so sick and alone—I don't know where I am."

She spoke of working in Boston as a waitress and residing at the Y. W. C. A. No greater Boston Y. W. C. A. residence register disclosed her name, however.

How long she was employed in Boston, or who her friends here were, officials were unable to determine. Police said the girl apparently had been given a ride from Boston to a point on the Worcester highway in Wellesley.

Hospital officials stated they had communicated with the girl's mother, Mrs. Anna Strain, in the North Carolina city.

Calls Shirley Crime School

LOWELL, Feb. 23—Charges that Shirley Industrial School for Boys is nothing more than a school for crime were made in court here today by a former 15-year-old inmate.

Eugene Millard, of Rock street, Lowell, after pleading guilty to 19 counts of larceny, asked for a House of Correction sentence.

Judge Patrick J. Reynolds wanted to know why Millard sought this sentence. The youth replied:

"Your Honor, I wouldn't be here today if it was not for the fact I served time at Shirley. I am now on parole from that institution."

"At Shirley I learned how to break into homes and how to use different kinds of keys and jimmyes in opening locks."

Police testified that Millard admitted to breaking and entering 19 residences in this section. Judge Reynolds held Millard in $1000 bail for a mental test.

Waits 2d Twin, Tardy 8 Days

JASPER, Ind., Feb. 23 (AP)—Eight days after birth of a son to Mrs. Robert Scherle, the 28-year-old wife of a factory worker, waited today for arrival of another child—the twin of the new baby.

Doctors had predicted she would bear twins. Today they admitted they were in the dark as to when the second would arrive.

The couple has three other children, from five to 11 years old. The father is 29.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Feb. 23 (AP)—A twin boy and girl—born nearly 80 hours apart—occupied adjoining cribs at an Allentown hospital today.

Mrs. Harold Faraworth, 26, gave birth to a boy Monday. The girl was born last night. Although premature, physicians said the babies were normal and "doing fine."

FATHER CLAIMS BODY OF SUICIDE

As she predicted in her farewell note, the father of Mrs. Ella Hutchinson, suicide by gas, claimed her body today.

Mrs. Hutchinson, housekeeper for Sylvester MacGillivray, Lincoln street, Somerville, wrote in her death note:

"I love you, but you don't love me, so good luck and goodbye. My father will take care of my body."

The father is Frank Bemis of

The medical examiner said Mrs. Hutchinson committed suicide while "temporarily deranged."

She had quarreled with MacGillivray about his going out on the eve of Washington's birthday.

Swat Jitterbugs

SHORT FALLS, N. H., Feb. 23 (AP)—Leaders of McClary Grange, ruling that jitterbugs interfere with the "dignity and rhythm" of old-fashioned dancers, today announced a ban on all swing dancers at their semi-annual dance tomorrow night.

TAX RELIEF OFFER BY MORGENTHAU

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (INS)—Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau assured business of the nation today that the administration contemplates no burdensome taxes which would retard the recovery movement, and thus added his pledge to that of President Roosevelt.

Morgenthau declared that he hopes Congress will eliminate from the government's tax structure all levies which might deter the progress of industry and deny a "reasonable profit" to the business man. The Treasury at this time, Morgenthau emphasized, does not expect to obtain increased revenues from new taxes. Rather, it hopes to reduce anticipated deficits from rising revenues brought about by stimulated industry.

Although President Roosevelt in his budget message indicated a need for new taxes to cover $500,000,000 of added national defense costs and farm benefit payment, Morgenthau said he is not counting on Congress to provide levies for this purpose. The President said as much before he left on his Caribbean cruise.

"As far as the Treasury is concerned, additional revenues must come from increased business," the Treasury head asserted. "Speaking for myself, the thing that bothers me is the attitude of the business men I have seen. They have expressed 'Oh, what's the use' attitude."

"I feel that this attitude is holding back a number of business men from expanding their business and from taking normal business risks. I sincerely hope Congress will take a careful look at the tax law to see if there are any deterrents which are holding back businessmen from making future commitments."

3 Die as Cold Blast Grips New England

Three persons were dead today, indirect victims of a cold snap that gripped all New England, glazing many highways with a sheet of ice and making pedestrians shiver.

Patrick Noonan, 46 and married, or Pearson road, Somerville, helper on a Charles town coal company truck, collapsed as the truck pulled in behind Boston City Hall to deliver a load.

He was removed to City Hospital where doctors said he was victim of a heart attack probably induced by the cold.

Mrs. Mariana Gauchier, 79, was found frozen to death outside her home in Upton, Pending examination by a medical examiner, police believed she fell in the street and was unable to rise.

At Warren, medical examiner Dr. Charles Deland said William Kolpak, 74, whose body was found by WPA employees a few yards from his front door died of a head injury suffered when he slipped and fell on an ice-covered sidewalk.

In Boston the lowest temperature was 14 degrees, reached at 6 a. m. In several cities in Maine it dropped to below zero.

State police in the six New England states described major travel as "extremely hazardous," and scores of auto accidents were reported.

Still lower temperature, with a minimum of 12 above for Boston, was predicted for tonight.

The weather bureau said a snowstorm, now centered over the Great Lakes, might swing over this area late in the day.

LEADERS TO QUIT 'RED' LEGAL GUILD

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (INS)—Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand Pecora, charging the National Lawyers' Guild is dominated by Communists, disclosed today that he is leading a mass withdrawal of prominent liberal attorneys from the organization, which has a national membership of 3400.

Frank P. Walsh, prominent labor lawyer and former president of the Guild, already has submitted his resignation, said Pecora who is retiring as president of the group.

Other noted attorneys who will resign, Pecora stated, include:

Morris Ernst, counsel for the Civil Liberties Union; Samuel Nul, labor lawyer and candidate for the Supreme court on the American Labor Party ticket last fall; Emil Schlessinger, labor attorney; United States District Court Judge William Holly of Chicago; Jerome Frank, former member of President Roosevelt's "brain trust" and now a member of the Securities and Exchange Commission; Thurman Arnold, assistant attorney-general of the United States, in charge of the investigation into monopolies; Prof. Malcolm Sharp of the University of Chicago law school, and Walter Fisher, lawyer and son of a former Secretary of the Interior.

"I do not want to go into personalities at this time," said Pecora, "but there are Communists within the guild. Many of them have wormed themselves into positions of influence in the organization."

"A majority of the membership are liberal lawyers. The best element is with us."

10 NAMED TO STATE BERTHS

Governor Saltonstall today sent the nominations of ten persons to the executive council. One was that of Carolyn Standley of Rockport as a member of the state board of parole.

Miss Standley replaces Gertrude A. McLaughlin, who resigned.

Other nominations included reappointments of Medical Examiners Henry J. Walcott of Concord and Mortimer T. Cavanaugh of Great Barrington and of Mary T. Richardson of Lynn also as trustee of the Independent industrial shoe-making school of Lynn.

Rev. George P. O'Conor of Dedham, chaplain of the wartime 101st Infantry, and Daniel J. Lyne of Newton were reappointed trustees of the Perkins Institute and Massachusetts School for the Blind. Dr. Henry Faxon of Brookline replaced Catherine Daley and Ellen H. Gleason of Jamaica Plain replaced Mary M. Dowd as trustee of the same institution.

Earl J. Whetten of North Chelmsford was nominated to the Commission of County Training Schools in place of Edgar C. Erickson, now adjutant-general. James Calladine was named trustee of the Lynn Shoemaking School to replace Daniel Kaufman, whose term has expired.

Nelson Urges $32 Tax Limit

Charging that there is no reason for taxpayers to tolerate increased taxes just because "there are a lot of shiftless, irresponsible leaders in government," Representative Eric Nelson, Republican of Boston, today warned a legislative taxation committee "you can't get blood out of a stone."

Secretary-treasurer of the Boston Real Estate Owners and Tenants League, Nelson appeared in support of his group's measure designed to prohibit cities and towns from levying a real estate tax of more than $32 per $1000.

"We pay $4,000,000 a year too much taxes in this state," he said, demanding sweeping economies in state, town and municipal expenditures.

Saltonstall Vetoes Dedham Town Bill

Governor Saltonstall's first veto today sent back to the Legislature a bill to reduce the number of town meeting members-at-large in Dedham. The governor said: "If this bill is adopted it will deprive certain town officials of their rights as citizens to vote on matters of interest to them in Dedham."

Garment Workers Weigh Big Walkout

With the arrival today from New York of David Dubinsky, president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, a mass meeting of Boston locals will be called tonight to decide whether new agreements will be signed with manufacturers or a general walkout ordered.

MATTSON SUSPECT IN COURT

A three-day trial here today has found that the Minnesota man and his wife, who were charged with the slaying of a young woman, were not guilty.

The jury, which was composed of 12 men and 12 women, returned its verdict after a three-day trial. The case was heard in the District Court of Minneapolis.

The Mattson couple were charged with the slaying of a young woman, who was found dead in a rooming house. The couple were charged with the crime on February 10, 1938.

New and Old Blend In Election of Pope

There is an amazing blend of the ancient and the modern in the speed and dignity with which the Catholic Church is hastening preparations for the election of a new Pope. Hugh Walpole, celebrated novelist, writes today describing the progress made in reading the Vatican for that solemn procedure.

By HUGH WALPOLE

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 23 — Modernity is impinging on history in the coming papal election in a startling way.

It is impossible to watch the delicate preparations for the election of a successor to Pius XI without getting back to the middle ages.

Very different from that which is the past, however, is the fact that the election of a new Pope has been decided on through the means of the modern world.

Not only have the preparations been made with such modern facilities as the radio, but the election itself will be held in the modern world.

The election of a new Pope is a matter of great importance to the Catholic Church, and the election of a new Pope is a matter of great importance to the Catholic Church.

Saltonstall Nurses Blisters After Shaking 6500 Hands

CATHOLICS MARK LENT BEGINNING

GOVERNOR SALTONSTALL'S nurses were busy shaking hands with the thousands of Catholics who gathered in the churches throughout the city to mark the beginning of the Lenten penitential season.

HANDSHAKING is painful at times, as Governor Saltonstall can attest. After ceremonies yesterday in which he greeted about 6100 persons with hand grips, His Excellency is showing Mrs. Saltonstall the "poor hand."

U. S. Girl Dancer Flown to Hitler

The producer took mother and me to a private club where Hitler was, too. He said he would like to meet us and we were there.

I thought nothing more of it, she said today, referring to the incident.

her previous meeting with the Emperor, and a crowd was sent for me to take me to the airport. I was nervous, after a fashion, but it was not in vain.

When I first stepped out, I saw Hitler and his staff and my heart.

After the show we were taken to the Kaiserhof. He was at the next table and said some very nice things to me in German. At least they sounded nice after they were interpreted.

Smart Set Functions

By BETTY ALDEN

SOCIETY put on the dog show the best way. And we know it. With the exception of the annual Boston Dog Club show at the Regatta Grounds, there is no other dog show in the city.

An other interest was the party. The dog show was a success. The party was a success. The dog show was a success. The party was a success.

Jacky Hodes took a paper from her duties in connection with the Treasurer Guild's opening of "Five Kings" next Monday, to help out as a steward in the ring where the obedience tests were held and to keep an eye on the judging of her favorite dogs, the boxers. Her own boxer has never made its debut as a show dog, but she knows a lot more about office work than her canine brothers, for she often accompanies Becky to her desk at Theater Guild headquarters.

The show provided a field day for candid camera fans who have evidently learned from professional photographers that candid camera fans are the most popular and profitable for posing. The show was a success. The party was a success. The dog show was a success. The party was a success.

Mr. W. E. Long Proud of Her Entry's Victory

THE DEBATING LANE of the Boston Stock Exchange was a scene of triumph for Mrs. W. E. Long, wife of the Boston Stock Exchange president, who is proud as a parent of her little Welsh Corgi, Megan, who deserved an extra tasty snack for supper last night after her perfect behavior in the obedience test. Megan, incidentally named for Lloyd George's daughter, Megan Lloyd George, who was the first Welsh celebrity Mrs. Long thought of when she acquired the pup from Elizabeth Loring Powell's famous Wauchoke kennels.

The Robert Chouteau and Mr. and Mrs. H. Bramwell Shaw, all prominent in society's hunting and dog show circles, went into a huddle with Gilbert Steward to compare notes about their favorite dog. Mrs. Chouteau in a fitted gray kidskin coat and fur hat, made of gray birds wings, a crimson ascot brightening Mrs. Shaw's fitted beige and brown tweed coat. Mr. Shaw's dog daughter, Laddie, was with them.

Vincent Club Girls Flock to Dog Show

A HOLIDAY in Vincent show rehearsals gave the dogs a chance to see the canine event. Joanna Hoyt, looking as pretty as ever in a rosy plum tweed suit and carrying a huge bunch of violets, took special interest in the snowy white poodles from the Justin Griss' kennels. Mr. and Mrs. Griss were hosts at a large ball for Joanne at the Myopia Hunt Club last autumn.

By nightfall Gail Neilson was footsore and weary after trudging miles around the building to see all the pups. Her gay little toast straw sailor hat giving a nod to spring, and topping a two-tone gray checked refer.

Still other dog lovers who returned home footsore and weary but contented, were Dorothy Stone, well known dancer and her husband, Charles Collins, who strolled around hand in hand; Mr. and Mrs. R. Devereux Barker, Jr., Mrs. John Garfield who is interested in Dalmatians, Kitty Talbot, Dorothy Storer, Mrs. Orris Bates and Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Fisher.

Of interest to Bostonians is the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Potter of Roslyn, L. I., of the engagement of their daughter, Sheila, to Sheldon Ellsworth Prentice. The bride-to-be is the niece of Mrs. William Stuart Forbes of Boston.

Mr. Prentice is the son of Bernon S. Prentice of Park avenue, New York, and the late Mrs. Prentice. Since his graduation from Harvard in 1936 he has lived in New York.

MRS. BETTY HODGES

NANCY DWINNEL

TENNIS is the favorite sport of Mrs. Betty Dwinnell Hodges and her sister, Nancy Dwinnell of Boston, who are vacationing in Bermuda. They are daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Dwinnell of West Newton.

Love

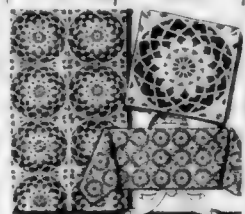

Too Old For Her?

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:
I am 24 years old and have a friend who is two years younger. We've been very much in love. She seems older and isn't as so many of her age, and has been going to her house for about a year. Her parents have nothing against me, but they never allow us to go out together, unless a third person is along. I think she is rather mean.
Do you think I ought to stay away from them until they let me go out alone, or should I keep on going over to the house?
And do you think I'm too old for her?

RICHARD

NO, RICHARD. I don't think 24 is too old for 22. But a lot of that depends on how much more than a child she is. If her parents are reasonable in their attitude, I think you should go over to see her and have a good time. You can take her to the movies or to the park, or to the beach, or to the city. If you have friends who like you, and if you are a good person, you should be able to get along with her. If you are not a good person, you should not be with her. If you are a good person, you should be able to get along with her. If you are not a good person, you should not be with her.

Odd Lot Plan
Makes ProgressBy HUGH E. BRADSHAW
Financial Editor

The efforts of the Boston Stock Exchange to expand its services are making fresh progress. . . Last year odd lot trading privileges in a number of stocks traded in the New York market were granted the local board. . . And now the SEC is being petitioned to allow round lot transactions in certain of those issues.

Since all stocks bought have reasonably large followings in New York, the plan would be distinctly helpful. . . Henry E. Tracy, president of the Boston Stock Exchange, submitted the facts offered in support of the plan for local listings. . . Frank Hammond asked him to exchange counsel. . . Their arguments are based on records of trading and holdings in this vicinity. . . A hopeful indication is given in the submission of a letter from the New York Stock Exchange warning not to lose an opportunity to be heard on the various applications. . .

INSURANCE LEADER . . . T. J. Falvey, president of the Massachusetts Bonding & Insurance Co. . . Obviously allergic to talk of recession. . . For proof see recent record books. . . He has just finished making his large, growing and live organization into a new home office building on Water Street, Boston. . . Where entrance is on the exact spot where he began his insurance career. . . And as for the "minor" year 1934. . . Well, it was the best in his company's history in two respects. . . Underwriting profits and net premium income were at new all time highs. . . Which contributed to an increase in earnings over the 1934 year 1937. . . Despite sharp reductions in interest and rents received.

PENSIONS WANTED . . . By the Suffolk Bank Association of Massachusetts. . . Who desire to establish pension plans for employees similar to those now paid under a New York plan. . . The proposed pension plan in this state is sponsored by Rutherford E. Smith for the association and Thomas W. Symons, vice-president of the Suffolk Savings Bank. . . While the bank commissioner's spokesmen indicate some form of a pension might be approved the particular bill under consideration is opposed. . .

EASTERN MASSACHUSETTS . . . The street railway, of course, is expected to be the first company to take advantage of the law permitting reduction of par values to as low as $5 or $10 a share. . . The reasoning is based on the sound premise that the company desires reduction in property accounts. . . Since its virtual conversion to a bus transportation concern involved the abandonment of millions of dollars' worth of property. . . Which can now be written off, or down, in line with securities. . .

MARKET ACTION . . . Still in the may-nothing stage. . . The holiday may break up the stalemate. . . A Broker's hope so. . . For the common stock market is showing no sign of life. . . And most of them are waiting anxiously for the Dow theory "line" formation to be broken. . . And if the old maxim that "a false threat precedes the actual direction" is right, then they have something to anticipate. . . The recent thrust down could now be followed by a rebound to higher levels.

RUKEYSER

Tax Reduction
Calls for Caution

By MERRYLE STANLEY RUKEYSER

International News Service Economic Commentator

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 With growing public sentiment for governmental economy and tax reduction, it is important that there should be clear thinking on this subject.

The first step will tend to restore confiscated purchasing power to the consumer, resulting in the people can be reassured. A balanced budget and with less distortion to the national economy than government bureaucracy.

Tax cuts will again remove the deterrents to business initiative and thus contribute to a thawing of capital reservoirs.

In order to raise the national income to pre-depression levels and beyond, it is also necessary simultaneously to achieve a better balanced national economy. Through correcting the existing maladjustments and depressions, which have passed from financial trade expansion. Once this has been accomplished, the American dream of regularly advancing living standards, resulting in the people can be reassured. A balanced budget, will be the possible to the effective balancing of government's budgets.

A defeatist view to assume that the national economy has become permanently frozen at the current level and that there is no way to break out of the current depression. The real remedy is in restoring the confidence and clearing the way for a vast increase in the gross turnover of American business.

Government economy and tax reduction should be immediately effectuated on all fronts. At the same time such steps such as bringing agriculture into parity with industry should be vigorously taken.

Somehow cannot be developed to make certain that the taxpayer gets his money's worth for every tax dollar. We should not, however, go to extremes in the other direction. Excessive expenditures, so that tax funds can be more effectively applied for essential and useful social services.

TRANSPORTATION
BOARD RAIL AIM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—A group of major railroads asked the House Interstate Commerce Committee today to sponsor legislation providing for establishment of a five-man general transportation board.

Under a plan outlined by R. V. Fletcher, general counsel for the Association of American Railroads, the presidentially-appointed board would take over financial and administrative functions of the present Interstate Commerce Commission and entire administration of the bureau of public roads.

The board also would have power to authorize issuance of securities and determine what certificates should be issued for the construction or abandonment of transportation lines.

Fletcher told the committee that the group has recommended voting with disfavor a section of the pending Lea transportation bill providing among other things for a transportation administrator.

Such an official, Fletcher asserted, "would be useless even if he were as wise as Solomon, as harmless as a dove, and as comported as George Washington."

Tire Prices Up

General Tire & Rubber Company announced an increase of from 2 to 5 per cent in passenger and truck tire prices, effective immediately. Tubes and farm tractor tires were exempted. Firestone Tire & Rubber announced similar advances last week, followed Monday by United States Rubber.

Carloadings Rise

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—The Association of American Railroads reported today 580,071 cars of revenue freight were loaded during the week ending last Saturday. This was an increase of 133 cars compared with the preceding week.

HARVARD COACH INVENTS NEW BATTING MACHINE

Helpful To Weak Hitters

By MURRAY KRAMER

Baseball is now celebrating its 106th anniversary but despite its years, the grand old game is still an incubator for new ideas.

The latest innovation in the nation's No. 1 pastime is a contraption set up by Floyd Stahl, Harvard's new baseball coach.

It's just a simple wooden frame with a rope attached to a pulley. The rope runs from the ground to about six feet high. On the rope there is a baseball which has been placed there by boring a hole through the middle of the ball and running the rope through it.

The principle of this machine is to place the ball at a spot where the batter has a definite weakness.

"Of course, this is not a cure all for a weakness or a blind spot," insists Coach Stahl, "but it has definite advantages."

"In the first place, if a batter has a weakness, it is rather difficult to find a college pitcher with enough control to have him continually throw to that one spot."

"Then again, this helps groove a batter's swing at the spot where he has his greatest difficulties. I'm convinced that it does some good."

During the explanation of the machine, Stahl kept a weather eye on his squad which is working out daily at the Harvard Cage.

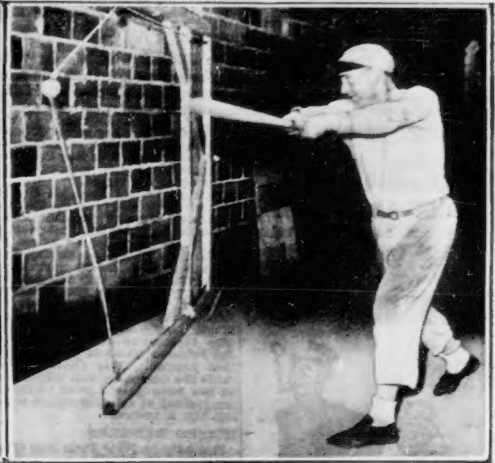

And, since it was his first experience with an Eastern group, the time seemed ripe to ask for a comparison with the players he now has against those he coached at Ohio State and the men in the Big Ten.

Stahl chirped, "To give an unqualified statement, I would have to wait until I saw more Eastern ball clubs."

"But, right now, I would say that the boys in the Mid-West are much bigger physically but that they lack the finesse and smoothness which seems to be characteristic of the squad that you see working now."

Coach Stahl tests Dick Grondahl on low one.

Captain Art Johns lines one out shoulder high.

Roy Conacher has scored 17 goals this season. Many N. H. L. players reputedly superior to Roy Conacher play three or four seasons before they equal his record.

Ten years ago next fall Charlie Conacher stepped from the Toronto Marlboro Juniors to the Maple Leafs and during his first year in the N. H. L. "Chuck" scored 21 goals. With nine games to play, Roy Conacher had scored just three goals less than did his brother "Chuck" during the 1929-30 season.

When "Chuck" Conacher broke into the N. H. L. with the Toronto Maple Leafs, he was assigned to play right-wing on the line with Joe Primeau, the best playmaker of that regime. Roy Conacher has made the center ice man with whom he has been paired great playmakers, instead of the playmakers making him a scorer.

RUINED RANGERS

Recently in New York, Roy Conacher scored three goals against Rangers, a remarkable achievement for a rookie. Last Tuesday night young Conacher scored four goals against the Blackhawks, equalling Syl Apps and "Toe" Blake's record.

Roy Conacher is one of the smartest and coolest recruits that ever broke into the N. H. L. Unlike his brothers "Chuck" and "Londie," Roy tends strictly to his business. During the current season, Roy has been given a thorough going over by opponents, particularly right wingers on whom he has scored, but he has seldom attempted to retaliate. Until Roy came into the league, no Conacher had ever been known to take it without giving better than he received.

A week ago, after the Bruin-Detroit game, your operative asked "Chuck" how come Roy was so easy going.

"Just wait until that kid gets his feet on the ground," declared "Chuck," "and then let any of the boys who have been tossing him around this year, overstep the bounds and see what happens. Roy's a Conacher, despite the fact that he hasn't shown you any of Londie's and my traits when given the well known business."

Roy Conacher was well grounded in the fundamentals of the game before he joined the Bruins. Just watch him when a defense man breaks down the ice and he isn't in the play. Instead of trailing the play, he will invariably drop back on the defense.

COOL ON ATTACK

Roy Conacher is coolest when he's inside the enemy defense. Even veterans when they are in scoring positions frequently get heated. But not Roy. I've seen him get the best goals in the N. H. L. this season by keeping his head while in scoring position. He goes right in on the goalie, dribbles him out of position and then shoots.

Within three weeks the votes for the best rookie will be in Frank Calder's office and when they are counted Roy Conacher should win by a comfortable margin for the 22-year-old Toronto youngster, whom Connie Smythe declared would enter the grade, is showing such marked improvement weekly that he's liable to be one of the most outstanding in the league by the time that the playoffs are over.

TREASURY REPORT—PAGE 12

Legions of Il Duce march to docks to embark for Libya where clashes with French troops are reported and denied. Italy and France are both strengthening armies in Africa. Whole world watches activity there.

Jury Out—Charged with luring two men to holdup rendezvous, Fay Mikulka (above) and Mary Oliver, both 19, expected to learn fate by nightfall... as case went to jury at noon. STORY ON PAGE 2

Tomb for 23—Almost, but not quite! This Pan-American clipper nosed over ... San Juan, Puerto Rico bay while landing but U. S. warships nearby saved crew and 23 passengers. It is shown being raised from depths.
